SCHOOL BUS REGISTRATION FORM 2018

CONDITIONS OF REGISTRATION

- The bus registration period is for the whole of the school year commencing with the first day of school in Term 1 until the last day of formal lessons in Term 4.
- Senior students must travel as fulltime students in Term 1 to be considered for individualized passes which will be costed and issued in accordance with their individual timetable in Terms 2, 3 and 4. Individualized Passes for senior students is negotiated with the Student Services Manager.
- All Payments must be made by the due date (see School Bus Payment Form) for service to be provided. The School reserves the right to discontinue service where this condition (or any negotiated payment date) is not met.
- Where registration is withdrawn by a parent in Semester 1 for any reason other than a change of address which is not on the bus route, and where the seat cannot be filled, the School reserves the right to charge the equivalent of an additional Term Pass.
- If the bus is at capacity and new registrations are received during the year, our priority will be to ensure students in Years 7 to 10 are guaranteed a seat.
- One Way Passes will only be available as seating allows. Please fill in 'Special Request' on Page 3 of this form.
- Casual Service cannot be guaranteed. A booking must be made and paid prior to travel at the SSO.

The bus is a user-payer system. Any student found travelling on the bus without having paid or travelling on someone else's pass will be liable for recovery of costs with additional consequences for dishonesty. The bus driver will be contacted and if it can be established this has occurred on several occasions the cost could be for a whole term.
